

Speech / Language, Learning and Hearing

The ICD Center for Speech/Language, Learning and Hearing evaluates and treats individuals of all ages with diverse communication impairments including; Speech/language delays and disorders whether developmental or acquired Cognitive Impairments and TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury) Learning problems Behavioral and emotional difficulties Auditory processing disorders Hearing problems

The staff includes New York State Licensed and accredited speech/language pathologists, audiologists, school and clinical psychologists, neuropsychologists, child and adult psychiatry, as well as occupational and physical therapists. Our multidisciplinary team assures a comprehensive and customized approach to each individual.

For an appointment please call 212-585-6080 or 212-585-6095.